Joining together

Perfect timing was the catalyst for a shared inaugural appearance for Lithia Beer and the Washington County Historical Society's Brew Ha-Ha fundraiser. From right, Gunter Woog, CEO of Lithia Beer, poses with Maria Frankenberg, widow of former Lithia employee Ernst Frankenburg, and Doug Ziegler. The event launched the debut of the museum's new brewing exhibit featuring Washington County's role in beer, brewing and prohibition. The late Ernst Frankenburg was also Sprecher beer's spokesman for area German festivals.
